Further comments on the trainer

"I have learnt a great deal from David as a trainer. He possesses a large armoury of tools to deal with various situations and is excellent at transmitting them appropriately."

"Knowledgeable - good pace and so polite and professional. Use of groupwork and practise makes perfect."

"David has an amazing way of engaging his audience and presents subjects with enthusiasm - draws interest."

"David's facilitative approach enables learning in a constructive way."

"Excellent trainer. Brings subject to life and reality - not just theoretical."

"I think he was very organised. He delivered a very good training workshop."

"Once again the trainer's grounded as well as theoretical experiences have served to make the delivery and presentation of the course content very relevant and lively."

"A really good day. Help refresh my skills and gave me new skills. The day was well facilitated. Enjoyed plenty of practice and the active doing."

"As with previous sessions David breaks down information very well and explains meaningfully. Examples / group work relate well personally. Presentation / slides very helpful."

"Outstanding."

"Excellent - never thought I'd enjoy the subject, but I did."

"As usual, David managed to form some hard subject into a clear and structured one."

"I thought I had exhausted all the presentation courses but this has put a fresh spin on it and there are lots of nuggets I will take away. David paces the courses very well and 'works the room' to put everyone at ease."

"As always very informative and dealt with everyone's needs. All information clear, concise and interesting. I always enjoy David's sense of humour."

"Enjoyed the mix of activities. David makes the concepts understandable and accessible."

"David made the subject more readily understandable. He made the day enjoyable and held my interest. David allowed lots of questions and debate that was stimulating."

"Highly motivational, enthusiastic, has a sense of humour, highly skilled in the subject."

"Clear measured style - with learning reinforced throughout the day and made relevant to real life practice."

"Well paced. Good variety of group work & presentation bits. Enough time to explain issues without ever feeling that we had dwelled on things too long."

"Enjoyed the pace of the day. David was able to make a complex subject easier to understand. Defining market research and marketing research - that was good."

"Excellent presentation skills / timing of day."

"Everything explained in easy to understand way with relevant examples."
